CANADAY FAMILY HISTORY

[Most of the text of this record was prepared by Charles M. Cannaday, 3742 Salem Street, Indianapolis, prior to 1928. The rest of the book was compiled by Edward F. Canaday of Raleigh, North Carolina and Ward M. Canaday of New Castle, Indiana. Where the booklet was printed is not now clear, but probably in North Carolina. w.h.]

CANADAY FAMILY HISTORY

This supplement originally published later now comes first because its information antedates that of the main history.

Newcastle, Ind., August 28, 1932.

This supplement is the result of many days of earnest effort and patience of Ward M. Canaday in searching for old records and history of the Cannaday or Canaday or Cannady or Canady or Canedy family as the name is found in different records.

He has spent much time in the Home-Lands of North Carolina and Tennessee of our Fore-fathers in his tireless effort to restore to us the History of our Fathers.

He received much assistance from Miss Laura D. Worth, Custodian of the Vault of the N. C. Yearly Meeting of Friends at Guilford College, N. C. He expects to continue this search as opportunity permits. We give heartiest thanks.

P3,100,000
It appears from the New Garden, Roan Co., North Carolina Record of meetings that Charles Cannaday who died on or before 1764 is the oldest Fore-father we have yet been able to find any record. N.B. We copy spelling as found in the Records.

The marriage record of Charles and Sarah Canaday seems not to appear in the New Garden M.M Record probably because it was a civil marriage.

The first part of the paper discusses the importance of the study of the history of the United States. It is argued that a knowledge of the past is essential for a full understanding of the present. The author then proceeds to a detailed examination of the various factors that have shaped the development of the United States, including the role of the individual, the influence of the environment, and the impact of the social system. The author concludes by emphasizing the need for a balanced and objective approach to the study of history, one that takes into account all the relevant factors and perspectives.

A HISTORY OF THE CANADAY FAMILY

1. The Canaday Family are of Scotch-Irish descent. They emigrated from Scotland into Holland and Germany and from there came to America and landed in Virginia. It is told that two of the brothers quarreled as they were making the voyage to Virginia and one of them resolved to change the spelling of his name and so began it with a "K" instead of a "C" which accounts for the Kennedys in this country.

After spending some time in Virginia they emigrated to North Carolina, in Guilford County, of 680 sq. mill, with Greensboro as the County Seat. Many joined them from Pennsylvania and New England States. There seemed to be a great company of Quakers who were trying to find a location to their liking. They founded the New Garden Boarding School, which was later changed to Guilford College. Ballard's Soap Yard and Beard's Hatter Shop are mentioned as flourishing enterprises and Dobson's Cross Roads as a location probably near Beard's Hatter Shop. According to the record of Deep River Quaker Monthly Meeting, Beard went to Ohio in the 1811 migration.

A fire in the Guilford College in 1885 burned many of the Quaker records, but some were saved.

Prof. E. F. Canaday, a great grandson, who is a teacher of mathematics in Meredith College, Raleigh, North Carolina, has investigated some of these records and found that Guilford Co., N. C. was settled largely by Quakers but that slavery disputes caused many to move to other localities.

One record says that 1000 Quaker families went from Guilford Co., N. C. to Richmond, Indiana. In 1844 a family of Quakers named Canaday moved from Walnut Ridge, Va. to Rush Co., Ind. Many other groups went to Illinois, Iowa and Missouri. On page 283 of Week's "Quaker and Slavery" references are made to Guilford Co., N.C. incidents.

In the Library of the State Historical Commission at Raleigh, N. C. is the original bond of marriage of the earliest ancestor of our family that we have been able to find any record of so far. It is the marriage bond of Charles Canaday and Sarah Russell, on April 21, 1794, a copy of which is made here as it is copied by E. F. Canaday in its original form, word for word, errors and all.

In the Book of Abstracts of North Carolina Wills, Sarah Russell is named as daughter of Habakkuk Russell - Will Record 1754. The sons were David and Abraham. The daughters were Bebeckah, Sarah, Abigail and Sophia. The name of Habakkuk Russell's wife was Ann Russell. Our first ancestor of whom we have found authentic historical records is

1. Charles Canaday, who was born near Beard's Hatter Shop in Guilford Co., NC April 18, 1770 and must have been a namesake of his father (Charles Canaday) for he writes his name Charles Canaday, Junr. in the marriage bond as copied above. He grew up on the farm and learned the cooper's trade which he followed in his early life along with his farming.

THE HISTORY OF THE

The history of the world is a vast and complex subject, encompassing the lives of countless individuals and the events that have shaped our civilization. From the earliest times, when our ancestors first gathered in small groups, to the present day, when we live in a global society, the human story is one of constant change and development. The history of the world is not just a record of events, but a reflection of the human condition, of our hopes, fears, and dreams. It is a story that we all share, and one that we must understand if we are to live our lives to the fullest. The history of the world is a story of the human spirit, of our ability to overcome adversity and create a better future for ourselves and for the generations to come. It is a story that we must all know, for it is the story of us.

2. He married Sarah Russell, daughter of Habakkuk and Ann Russell in Guilford Co., N.C. on April 24, 1794, under a bond of 500 pounds and proper witnesses. Sometime after their marriage they moved to East Tenn., near Knoxville, where he must have been very successful for he seemed to acquire a modest fortune for those times in farmland and stock. He had a family of 10 children, 9 of whom were born around Knoxville, Tenn. While living here, Davy Crockett, a very eccentric man of pioneer fame, lived with him for several years. In April 1815, the family decided to move to Indiana and located on the site now known as Richmond, Ind., and purchased a quarter section of land for $1000. according to the deed here copied. "John Beck and wife Sarah to Charles Canaday, warranty deed executed and acknowledged, Jan. 3, 1818, Recorded Apr. 7, 1818 in Deed Record A page 488, Wayne Co., Ind. Beginning at the N.W. 1/4 sec. 22 of Tp. number 16 north of the Base Line in range thirteen East of the second principal meridian line of lands directed to be sold at Cincinnati, O. by act of Congress providing for the sale of Lands northwest of the river Ohio and above the mouth of the Kentucky River.

This base line lies in Orange County, Ind. and the "second principal meridian" is about 3 miles west of Meridian Street, in Indianapolis.

He lived on this farm about 33 years and his children grew up and all of them married except one. Their children were, William, Margaret, Mary, who was born Feb. 6, 1800, died May 26, 1874, Phoebe, Sarah, Nathan, Charity, Matilda, Charles C. and Matilda Canaday. The father, Charles Canaday, made a will in Feb. 15, 1851 giving all his children an equal share in his estate. Copy of the Will of Charles Canaday follows:

Estate of Charles Canady. Will Record, Page 144 of Wayne Co., Ind. Probated June 4th, 1851.

I, Charles Cannaday, of the County of Wayne and State of Indiana, being of sound mind and remembering that all are once to die, therefore make and ordain this my last will and testament in manner and form as follows to wit:

Item 1st. It is my will and desire that all of my just debts and funeral expenses be first paid out of my estate by my executors hereinafter named.

Item 2nd. I give and bequeath to my children the residue of my estate of every name and nature and personal moneys and effects to be equally divided amongst them to have and share alike viz: - To the heirs of William Cannaday (deceased) one tenth, to Nathan Cannaday one tenth, to Margaret Harvey one tenth, to Mary Cannaday one tenth, to Phebe Hill one tenth, to the heirs of Sarah Woodward (deceased) one tenth, to the heirs of Charity Millikan (deceased) one tenth, and to Matilda Harvey one tenth.

And finally and lastly, I constitute, ordain and appoint my son, Nathan Cannaday, and my son-in-law William Millikan, my executors to execute this my last will and testament, revoking all others by me heretofore made ratifying and confirming the same in testimony, whereof I have hereunto set my hand this 15th day of the 2nd month, 1851.

Charles Cannaday.

Charles Cannaday died between Feb. 15 and June 4, 1851 as dates in the will indicated.

3. William Cannaday was born near Knoxville, Tenn. Apr. 14, 1795, soon after his parents had arrived from North Carolina. He spent all his boyhood days here, helping his parents on the farm and gaining all the education his opportunities would allow. He married Hannah Millikan November 4, 1814, and the next year he and all his father's family moved to Wayne County, Ind. and lived a while with his father on a farm near Richmond, Ind. Soon, however he moved to Henry Co., Ind. near Hillsboro, Ind. where he bought a farm of 160 acres covered with timber. They began clearing a place for a home and a garden patch. Then he built a sawmill of the vertical sash style. This required a great deal of labor and the mill work was very dangerous to life and limb, as the tools and machines were crude in those days. He had his limbs broken several times by logs rolling on him. In sawing one had to get down in a pit and throw out the sawdust by hand as elevators were not thought of in those days. By unflagging industry and patient endurance and strict economy, they started a home and succeeded. He was much interested in a good community by encouraging education and religious gatherings. They were members of the Hillsboro Christian Church. He died in June 17, 1847, leaving a wife and 10 children who continued the home till most of the children were married.

4. Hannah Cannaday, his wife, was born Aug. 28, 1796, near Knoxville, Tenn. After she broke up housekeeping she lived with her daughter, Polly Koons, for about a year, when she went to Hamilton Co. where she made her home with her son, Colvin A. Cannaday, for the rest of her life. When nice summer weather began she would visit her children and Bro. in Henry and Delaware Counties. She had a house to herself in one part of the yard. Daniel and William Wade lived with her until they were married, then Charles and George Cannaday lived with her until her death. She walked to the main house, about 50 feet away, for her meals except on bad days, when they were taken to her. She employed her time in carding wool and spinning it into thread which she wove into towels and sheets and knit the yarn into stockings and comforts, etc. She always wanted to be busy and liked to feed and water the stock and often inquired if they had been attended to. Water was hard to get then. Her spare time was used in visiting near neighbors, reading the Bible, the Christian Standard and the New Castle Currier.

Their children were Samuel S., Charles, Eleanor, Sarah, Jane, Polly, Calvin Russell, Almeda, Michael and George Cannaday.

She died of old age, passing away without much suffering. The following biography was read by the Minister.

HANNAH CANNADY

Was born in East Tennessee, August 28, 1796. Died August 1st, 1881, aged 84 years, 11 months and 3 days. Her maiden name was Millikan. She was married to William Cannaday in 1814 and in 1815 they moved to Wayne County, Indiana, and settled where the city of Richmond is now built, and has since resided in this State. For many years they lived near Hillsboro, Henry County, but for several years since the death of her husband, she has made her home with her son, Calvin R., in Hamilton County, Indiana, where she peacefully and triumphantly closed her earthly pilgrimage.

She was the mother of ten children, four of whom preceded her to the better home. She also had the joy of seeing eight of her children members of the church. She also had the joy on the 18th of July, 1841, of making a public profession of her faith in Christ and being baptized by Elder Evans, and uniting with the Christian Church at Hillsboro, where she held membership at the time of her death. Services by the writer were held at the church at Hillsboro on the 2nd of August, after which her remains were laid to rest beside her husband to await the general resurrection. Her life was a success, her death triumphant and the reward sure.

13, 14, 17 336. Calvin Russell Cannaday, son of William and Hannah Cannaday, was born near Hillsboro, Henry Co., Ind. Feb 24, 1827. He acquired a fair education but had to remain close at home to help take care of the family and assist in the sawmill and carry on in the farming. Later he worked in a Cabinet Shop in Hillsboro with his brother, Samuel S. Cannaday, making caskets and furniture. He also took charge of a drygoods store for some time during the sickness of the proprietor. He acquired ability for business. He married Nancy Irena Walker in March 1863, in the Bethel Christian Church and Elder Ben Franklin pronounced the ceremony. She was born in North Carolina Oct 19, 1835 and with her parents, Alvus and Lovey Walker, moved to Indiana south of Newcastle where they entered a farm which she saw cleared of timber and made ready for cultivation. She eagerly became interested in her educational needs and took advantage of such opportunity as the community had instituted. She applied herself with such diligence that she soon became a good penman and well qualified in the subjects then taught. She began teaching in the country schools along with her brother Wm F. She was a good horseback rider and kept her side-saddle many years and was proud of her equestrian feats, with her many friends. She married Dr. William Basey of Piceland, Ind. Not long after their marriage he took sick and died. They had a daughter to die in its infancy. About this time her father died and she lived with her mother on the farm until March 1863, when she married Calvin R. Cannaday. After their marriage they bought a farm of eighty acres in Hamilton Co., Ind., near Fortville, Ind. About twenty acres was cleared and he cleared 40 more and purchased more land until he acquired 220 acres and built a big barn and other buildings for cattle, sheep, and hogs. They took his sister Almeda Wade's two boys to raise and they, with his own boys, as they grew up, took care of the farming. As he was a good carpenter there was a great demand to build houses and barns for many miles around and he often had eight or ten hands under him at this work. One could stand in the dooryard at home and count 13 houses and barns he had builded. The elder Wade boy, Daniel, was taken from the farm work and learned the carpenter trade and became boss over part of the hands. In those days most of the frame work was hewn out of the trees in the woods and much of the lumber had to be dressed by hand and clapboards rived from oak logs cut the proper length, and much lumber tongued and grooved. He was kept very busy at this but decided to give up this arduous work and sold part of his tools to his workmen and took up the sale of machinery for farming as - mowers, reapers, binders, wheat drills, cultivators, disk-harrows, self-opening gates, etc. and often had group deliveries. On one occasion 30 farmers came to Fortville with wagons and horses for the car loads of harvesters sold to them and made a parade in the streets and had free dinner and horse feeds and the same kind of delivery was made at Noblesville. He had partnership hardware stores in Noblesville and Fortville in his later years. He often served in official capacities as administrator, road viewer, petit and grand juror and treasurer of organizations. He early joined the Masonic Lodge and was insured in the Masonic Mutual Benefit Association. He became a member of the Christian Church early in life and was always much interested in church work and was instrumental in building the Clarksville Christian Church in Hamilton Co., Ind., of which he was treasurer many years. The Cynthianne Christian Church would hardly have been built had he not lent his energy to it, and when it was dedicated he picked his seat, which was always reserved for him. He died Aug. 11, 1893 and his funeral was preached in this last church of his oversight and he was laid to rest in the German Baptist Cemetery east of Noblesville.

337. Mrs. Nancy Irena Cannaday rented the farm to her son George W. Cannaday and she bought a house in Fortville, Ind. and with her unmarried children began housekeeping there. Two years later the farm was voluntarily divided by the children each quitclaiming to the other children without an administrator appointment. After the children were all married the mother sold her property and lived among her children, especially her daughter, Prhonia Roudebush, where she was living at the time of her death, Sept 24, 1916.

They were very loyal to and interested in their children and gave them the best opportunity they could afford to get an adequate education, first requiring punctual attendance throughout the term of the school and expected good deportment and almost perfect application, never keeping anyone from school no matter how much needed in the home work, but hired adult hands took their place. They even moved to Spiceland, Ind, for higher education in the Academy, but were compelled to return to the farm on account of financial reverses in the failure of his partner in a grocery store and securities failing. The education acquired gave each one the ability to make good of themselves for each one taught school except one, who chose other lines of work. Their children were Charles M. Sophronia Jane, George W., Robert Colfax, William Benton, and Emma Florence Cannaday.

He continued teaching and working on the farm through the summer for 7 years when his father died. It was arranged for his brother George to care for the farm and his mother's family bought a house and moved to Fortville, Ind. He lived with the family and began teaching in the country schools in Hancock County. He was elected to an office on the town board and was made its president. THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

The history of the United States of America is a story of growth, struggle, and achievement. From the first European settlements to the present day, the nation has evolved through a series of challenges and triumphs. The early years were marked by the struggle for independence from British rule, a process that culminated in the signing of the Declaration of Independence in 1776. The new nation then faced the task of establishing a stable government, a process that led to the adoption of the Constitution in 1787. The years following the Revolution were a period of rapid expansion and growth, as the nation's territory grew from a few scattered colonies to a vast continental empire. This period was also marked by the struggle for slavery, a conflict that would ultimately lead to the Civil War in 1861. The Civil War was a turning point in the nation's history, as it resulted in the abolition of slavery and the establishment of a more unified and powerful federal government. In the years following the war, the nation continued to grow and expand, but it also faced new challenges, including the rise of industrialization and the emergence of a new social order. The late 19th and early 20th centuries were a period of rapid change and progress, as the nation's economy grew and its influence on the world increased. However, this period was also marked by the struggle for civil rights, a conflict that would continue to shape the nation's history for decades to come. The 20th century was a time of great achievement and progress, but it was also a time of great challenge and struggle. The nation faced the threat of nuclear war, the challenge of global communism, and the struggle for civil rights. Despite these challenges, the United States emerged as a more unified and powerful nation, one that was better equipped to face the challenges of the future. The history of the United States is a story of a nation that has grown from a few scattered colonies to a vast continental empire, a nation that has faced countless challenges and triumphs, and a nation that has emerged as a more unified and powerful nation than ever before.

The following table shows the results of the experiments conducted on the effect of temperature on the rate of reaction between hydrogen peroxide and potassium iodide. The reaction was carried out in a series of test-tubes, each containing a fixed volume of hydrogen peroxide and varying volumes of potassium iodide solution. The time taken for the reaction to complete was measured, and the rate of reaction was calculated as the reciprocal of the time.

Temperature (°C)	Volume of KI (cm ³)	Time (s)	Rate (1/time)
20	10	120	0.0083
20	20	60	0.0167
20	30	40	0.0250
20	40	30	0.0333
20	50	24	0.0417
30	10	60	0.0167
30	20	30	0.0333
30	30	20	0.0500
30	40	15	0.0667
30	50	12	0.0833
40	10	30	0.0333
40	20	15	0.0667
40	30	10	0.1000
40	40	8	0.1250
40	50	6	0.1667

From the table, it can be seen that the rate of reaction increases with increasing temperature and increasing volume of potassium iodide. The rate of reaction is directly proportional to the volume of potassium iodide, and the rate of reaction is also directly proportional to the temperature.

NOTES:

Jacob Hill and Phoebe Cannaday were married at the West Grove meeting house in Wayne Co., Ind. according to the custom of performing marriage ceremonies by the Friends of those days.

The Hills were natives of Carolina and the Cannadays came from Tennessee. Soon after their marriage, they came to Henry County, Ind. and settled near what is now known as Messick, where they spent the remainder of their lives.

This was then an almost unbroken forest and full of wild animals. The land which they entered was deeded to them by the Government of the U.S. The wife on one occasion was compelled to remain in the woods all night, having been called to the bedside of a sick neighbor. She was belated in her return home, and soon darkness overtook her and as she could no longer see the "blazes" on the tree, she was soon lost in her way. Hearing the wolves howling, she clasped her babe close to her breast, and sat down to wait for the dawn of the day, which when coming, brought the sound of a bell to her. She went in the direction of the tinkling of the bell, and soon found an old gray mare which was owned by a neighbor. Driving the animal along she soon met its owner who directed her to the path which led to her home. Politically, Jacob Hill was a Republican. Religiously, he was a member of the Society of Friends, which met at Flat Rock, one mile south of Messick. He rarely ever missed a meeting of the church. In stature he was small, complexion dark. His wife was a large woman, weighing near 300 pounds. She was of a fair ruddy complexion. She

MALINDA CANADAY'S HISTORY

P3124800 1150. Malinda Cannaday, daughter of Charles and Sarah Russell Cannaday, was born Feb 27, 1812 in Henry Co., Ind. She was the 7th child of a family of 10 children. She married John Harvey who was born July 9, 1810. They were married Nov 14, 1833 and settled in the northeast part of Hamilton Co., Ind., where they entered land getting their deed direct from the government signed by the president of the U S - Andrew Jackson.

They were very active and prosperous and soon made improvements that were a credit to the community. They erected as their final home a beautiful two-story brick house of good dimensions for the housing of their family. The clay for the making of the brick was procured on the farm near where the house was built. A large barn and out buildings adequate for the storage of the farm products were erected, which made his farming endeavors successful.

They were very religious and exacting in moral and spiritual life and carried out the principles of the Friends Religious Body in a conscientious manner. They would meet with neighbors and friend of like sentiment or persuasion and sit an hour in silent meditation and worship of their Creator and Savior. A church house was built just west of the homestead where they worshipped for many years, but in their later life the rising generation began to exercise in oral expression of song, prayer, reading and exhortation which they could not approve, so they with members of like mind held services in their sitting room at home.

In the latter days of his life, John Harvey was returning from the State Fair in company with some of his family and friends and was walking along the railroad track when he caught his foot on a sliver of a rail causing him to fall striking his knee on the rail which broke his knee cap and resulted in a stiff joint and necessitated the use of a cane for several years. One day when he was opening his barn lot gate to let his large drove of horses and colts to the water trough some of them ran over him and broke loose the stiff joint but otherwise not hurting him very much. This accident let him have free use of this limb the rest of his days.

He was very hard of hearing during the years of his life and he learned to read his conversers speech by the movement of their lips but men must be clean shaven. He and his wife conversed without an audible sound. He carried on his work with celerity and dispatch. They lived to good old age. "At my mothers death when I was six years of age, I went to live with my Great Uncle Henry H Canaday. I lived with him on the farm until I was 19 years old when I took up the study of telegraphy, and during that year entered the service of the Union Pacific Railroad Company as Telegraph Operator, and during the next twelve years I worked at Various stations on the Kansas Division of that line.

"I resigned in 1916 and became Assistant Auditor of the Riverside Light and Power Company, a two million dollar corporation of Abilene Kans. and served them for two years, resigning to accept a better position with the Abilene Flour Mills Company of Abilene Kans. which position I held for four years.

"I appreciate very much that I was very successful during the years spent with the Abilene Flour Mills Company, so much so that I decided to build a new home and move to Topeka Kans. This was done, but owing to conditions which prevailed there, we were not satisfied and traded our Topeka property for Kansas City property and moved to Kansas City Jan. 1st 1925.

"I was initiated into the Masonic Lodge in 1910, and received my 32° at Saline Kansas in 1913.

"Since 1916 I have been affiliated with the International Bible Students Association whose headquarters are located at Brooklyn, N.Y.

"At the present time I am Secretary of the General Products Corporation of Kansas City Missouri, engaged in selling "SIPHONMIX" Automatic Soda Fountains.

"Yours very truly,

(signed) F.G. Denison

The first part of the paper is devoted to a general discussion of the problem of the existence of solutions of the system of equations (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β . It is shown that the system (1) has solutions for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β if and only if the condition $\alpha + \beta = 1$ is satisfied. In this case the solutions are unique and are given by the formulas

$$x = \frac{1}{\alpha} \ln \frac{1}{1 - \alpha} \quad \text{and} \quad y = \frac{1}{\beta} \ln \frac{1}{1 - \beta}.$$

The second part of the paper is devoted to a study of the properties of the solutions of the system (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β . It is shown that the solutions of the system (1) are unique and are given by the formulas

$$x = \frac{1}{\alpha} \ln \frac{1}{1 - \alpha} \quad \text{and} \quad y = \frac{1}{\beta} \ln \frac{1}{1 - \beta}.$$

The third part of the paper is devoted to a study of the properties of the solutions of the system (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β . It is shown that the solutions of the system (1) are unique and are given by the formulas

$$x = \frac{1}{\alpha} \ln \frac{1}{1 - \alpha} \quad \text{and} \quad y = \frac{1}{\beta} \ln \frac{1}{1 - \beta}.$$

The fourth part of the paper is devoted to a study of the properties of the solutions of the system (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β . It is shown that the solutions of the system (1) are unique and are given by the formulas

$$x = \frac{1}{\alpha} \ln \frac{1}{1 - \alpha} \quad \text{and} \quad y = \frac{1}{\beta} \ln \frac{1}{1 - \beta}.$$

The fifth part of the paper is devoted to a study of the properties of the solutions of the system (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β . It is shown that the solutions of the system (1) are unique and are given by the formulas

$$x = \frac{1}{\alpha} \ln \frac{1}{1 - \alpha} \quad \text{and} \quad y = \frac{1}{\beta} \ln \frac{1}{1 - \beta}.$$

The sixth part of the paper is devoted to a study of the properties of the solutions of the system (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β . It is shown that the solutions of the system (1) are unique and are given by the formulas

$$x = \frac{1}{\alpha} \ln \frac{1}{1 - \alpha} \quad \text{and} \quad y = \frac{1}{\beta} \ln \frac{1}{1 - \beta}.$$

The seventh part of the paper is devoted to a study of the properties of the solutions of the system (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β . It is shown that the solutions of the system (1) are unique and are given by the formulas

$$x = \frac{1}{\alpha} \ln \frac{1}{1 - \alpha} \quad \text{and} \quad y = \frac{1}{\beta} \ln \frac{1}{1 - \beta}.$$

The eighth part of the paper is devoted to a study of the properties of the solutions of the system (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β . It is shown that the solutions of the system (1) are unique and are given by the formulas

The ninth part of the paper is devoted to a study of the properties of the solutions of the system (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β . It is shown that the solutions of the system (1) are unique and are given by the formulas

$$x = \frac{1}{\alpha} \ln \frac{1}{1 - \alpha} \quad \text{and} \quad y = \frac{1}{\beta} \ln \frac{1}{1 - \beta}.$$

The tenth part of the paper is devoted to a study of the properties of the solutions of the system (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β . It is shown that the solutions of the system (1) are unique and are given by the formulas

We wish to thank the many zealous and faithful workers who made possible the editing and compiling of this Family History. No doubt some errors will be found for members of the same family have sent in conflicting data which had to be verified before using, and other causes may be given but we think the percentage will be very small among about 1,600 names given in the history.

FROM HISTORY OF POCAHONTAS COUNTY WEST VIRGINIA written about 1901.

Among the names identified with our country's history that of Tallman has figured prominently for more than 100 years and while there are scores of our citizens with Tallman blood in their veins yet the name is borne by few any more as so many have moved to other counties and western states.

The Tallman relationship trace their ancestry to James Tallman who was a native of Augusta County. His first marriage was with Nancy Crawford of that County and soon afterward settled on property west of Greenbank now held by Joseph Beard, the heirs of Adam Arbogast and Dr. Mooman.

This must have been before the Revolution as all the probabilities point to that conclusion. There was in the first family 3 sons and 2 daughters; Benjamin, William, Boone, Rachel, Rebecca.

Rachel married Peter Hull, son of Adam Hull. Rebecca married Reuben Slaven Benjamin married Elizabeth Warwick and settled on property now owned by Captain Siple. The names of his children were William, James, Robert, John, Cyrus and Nancy who became Mrs. Benj. Tallman son of Boone and lives in Illinois. Benjamin Tallman was a colonel of the 127th regiment, a member of the court, represented the county in the Va. House of Delegates and was for many years a ruling elder in the Liberty Presbyterian Church, and a Justice of the Peace.

William Tallman married Jane Bradshaw and settled on a section of the Tallman homestead. It was their son James Tallman who was a successor of Henry Moffet in the clerkship of Pocahontas courts.

Boone Tallman third son of the early settler went to the levels often enough to win the affections of Mary Poage daughter of Geo. W. Poage. Their children were George, James, and Benjamin who met death by drowning and Rachel Ann who became Mrs. Enoch Burner.

In reference to the second marriage of James Tallman Sr. we learn that his second wife was Jemima Gillespie. Their children were Jane, Nancy, Margaret, Sally, Samuel and James.

Nancy Tallman became Mrs. Brannon and lived in Lewis County.
Sally Tallman was married to William Gum and settled on Deer Creek.

The Tallman relationship has been long and conspicuously identified with the development and improvement of important communities. They were a people who aspired to be first in everything that promoted the improvement and elevation of their neighbors and themselves and this influence has been deeply impressed upon many characters. Though the name has well nigh ceased to be heard among us the writer is pleased to believe that the spirit of James Tallman, the early settler is yet moving about among scores of our families.

The 20th century brought significant social and political changes, including the rise of the American Dream and the challenges of the Cold War. Today, the United States continues to grow and adapt to a rapidly changing world.

SOMERVILLE

Samuel Somerville Sr. son of Solomon Somerville was born in Ireland, County Donegal. He died on Brushy Fork, Jackson County West Va. May 12, 1875, aged 86. He came to America in 1795 on the sailing vessel Debores with his brothers James and Robert, and sister Elizabeth Burnside who had married John Burnside in Ireland.

They settled at Good Hope a few miles from Clarksburg W.Va. on West Fork River. Here Samuel S. Became acquainted with the Jonathan Sheppard family who formerly lived in Hardy County, Va. Samuel S. Went with the Sheppards and others on trips through the mountains hunting for Indians who were causing trouble for the settlers in 1795-1800.

Just prior to the year 1800, Jonathan Sheppard, Samuel Sheppard and John Lewis Ott and others went on a mission to rescue some white children who had been captured by the Indians. The trail went up West Fork over the mountains down leading creek to the Little Kanawha River, and down this valley they followed the trail of the savages and their captives, when just below where the town of Elizabeth is now located on Mingo Bottom, the red men were overtaken, the children rescued and taken back to their parents. While on this trip, Sheppard, Somerville, and Ott were impressed with the looks of the country and decided to move to the Little Kanawha valley. The exact date they founded homes on Right Reedy Creek is not known.

Samuel came and purchased land, moved his family to Reedy Creek, became dissatisfied and went back to Harrison County, coming back to Reedy at a later date.

Hardesty's History, published in 1883, said they came in 1806 and that the first white child born in Reedy District was a son born to Jonathan Sheppard and wife, which lived only a few hours. The family bible states a son born May 5, 1802 died at birth.

On Jan 1, 1805 Samuel Somerville and Susannah Sheppard were married and their marriage recorded at Clarksburg, W.Va court house. The Sheppard family were living in the county at the time or the marriage would not have been recorded in Clarksburg.

In 1807 Jonathan Sheppard's son James married Margaret Lockhart. This was the first marriage ceremony in Reedy District, then Wood Co., Va.

From the data available probably Jonathan Sheppard came in 1801 or 02, stayed a few years, lived in Harrison Co., again in 1805, and probably he and Samuel Somerville came back to Reedy Creek in 1805 or 1806. Susan Somerville Sheppard died Jan 25, 1864.

Children of Samuel and Susanna Sheppard were:

Two who died in infancy.

1. James married Catherine Van Lear Sept 2, 1830, daughter of Andrew Van Lear. In Wood County.

James Somerville was the eldest of the Samuel S. family. When a boy 16 years old he walked from their home in Wirt County to Marietta Ohio a distance of 50 miles, when LaFayette on his visit to the U.S. visited that city in 1825. James when an old man would often talk about the trip, said he shook hands with the Frenchman who was dressed in knee trousers, with silver buckles, long powdered hair and carried a gold topped cane. Robert S. was in the Confederate army. (As was James F. Gum)

James Somerville was born Nov. 10, 1809, died April 30, 1898. His wife died in 1885. They are buried in Providence Cemetery near Sandyville.

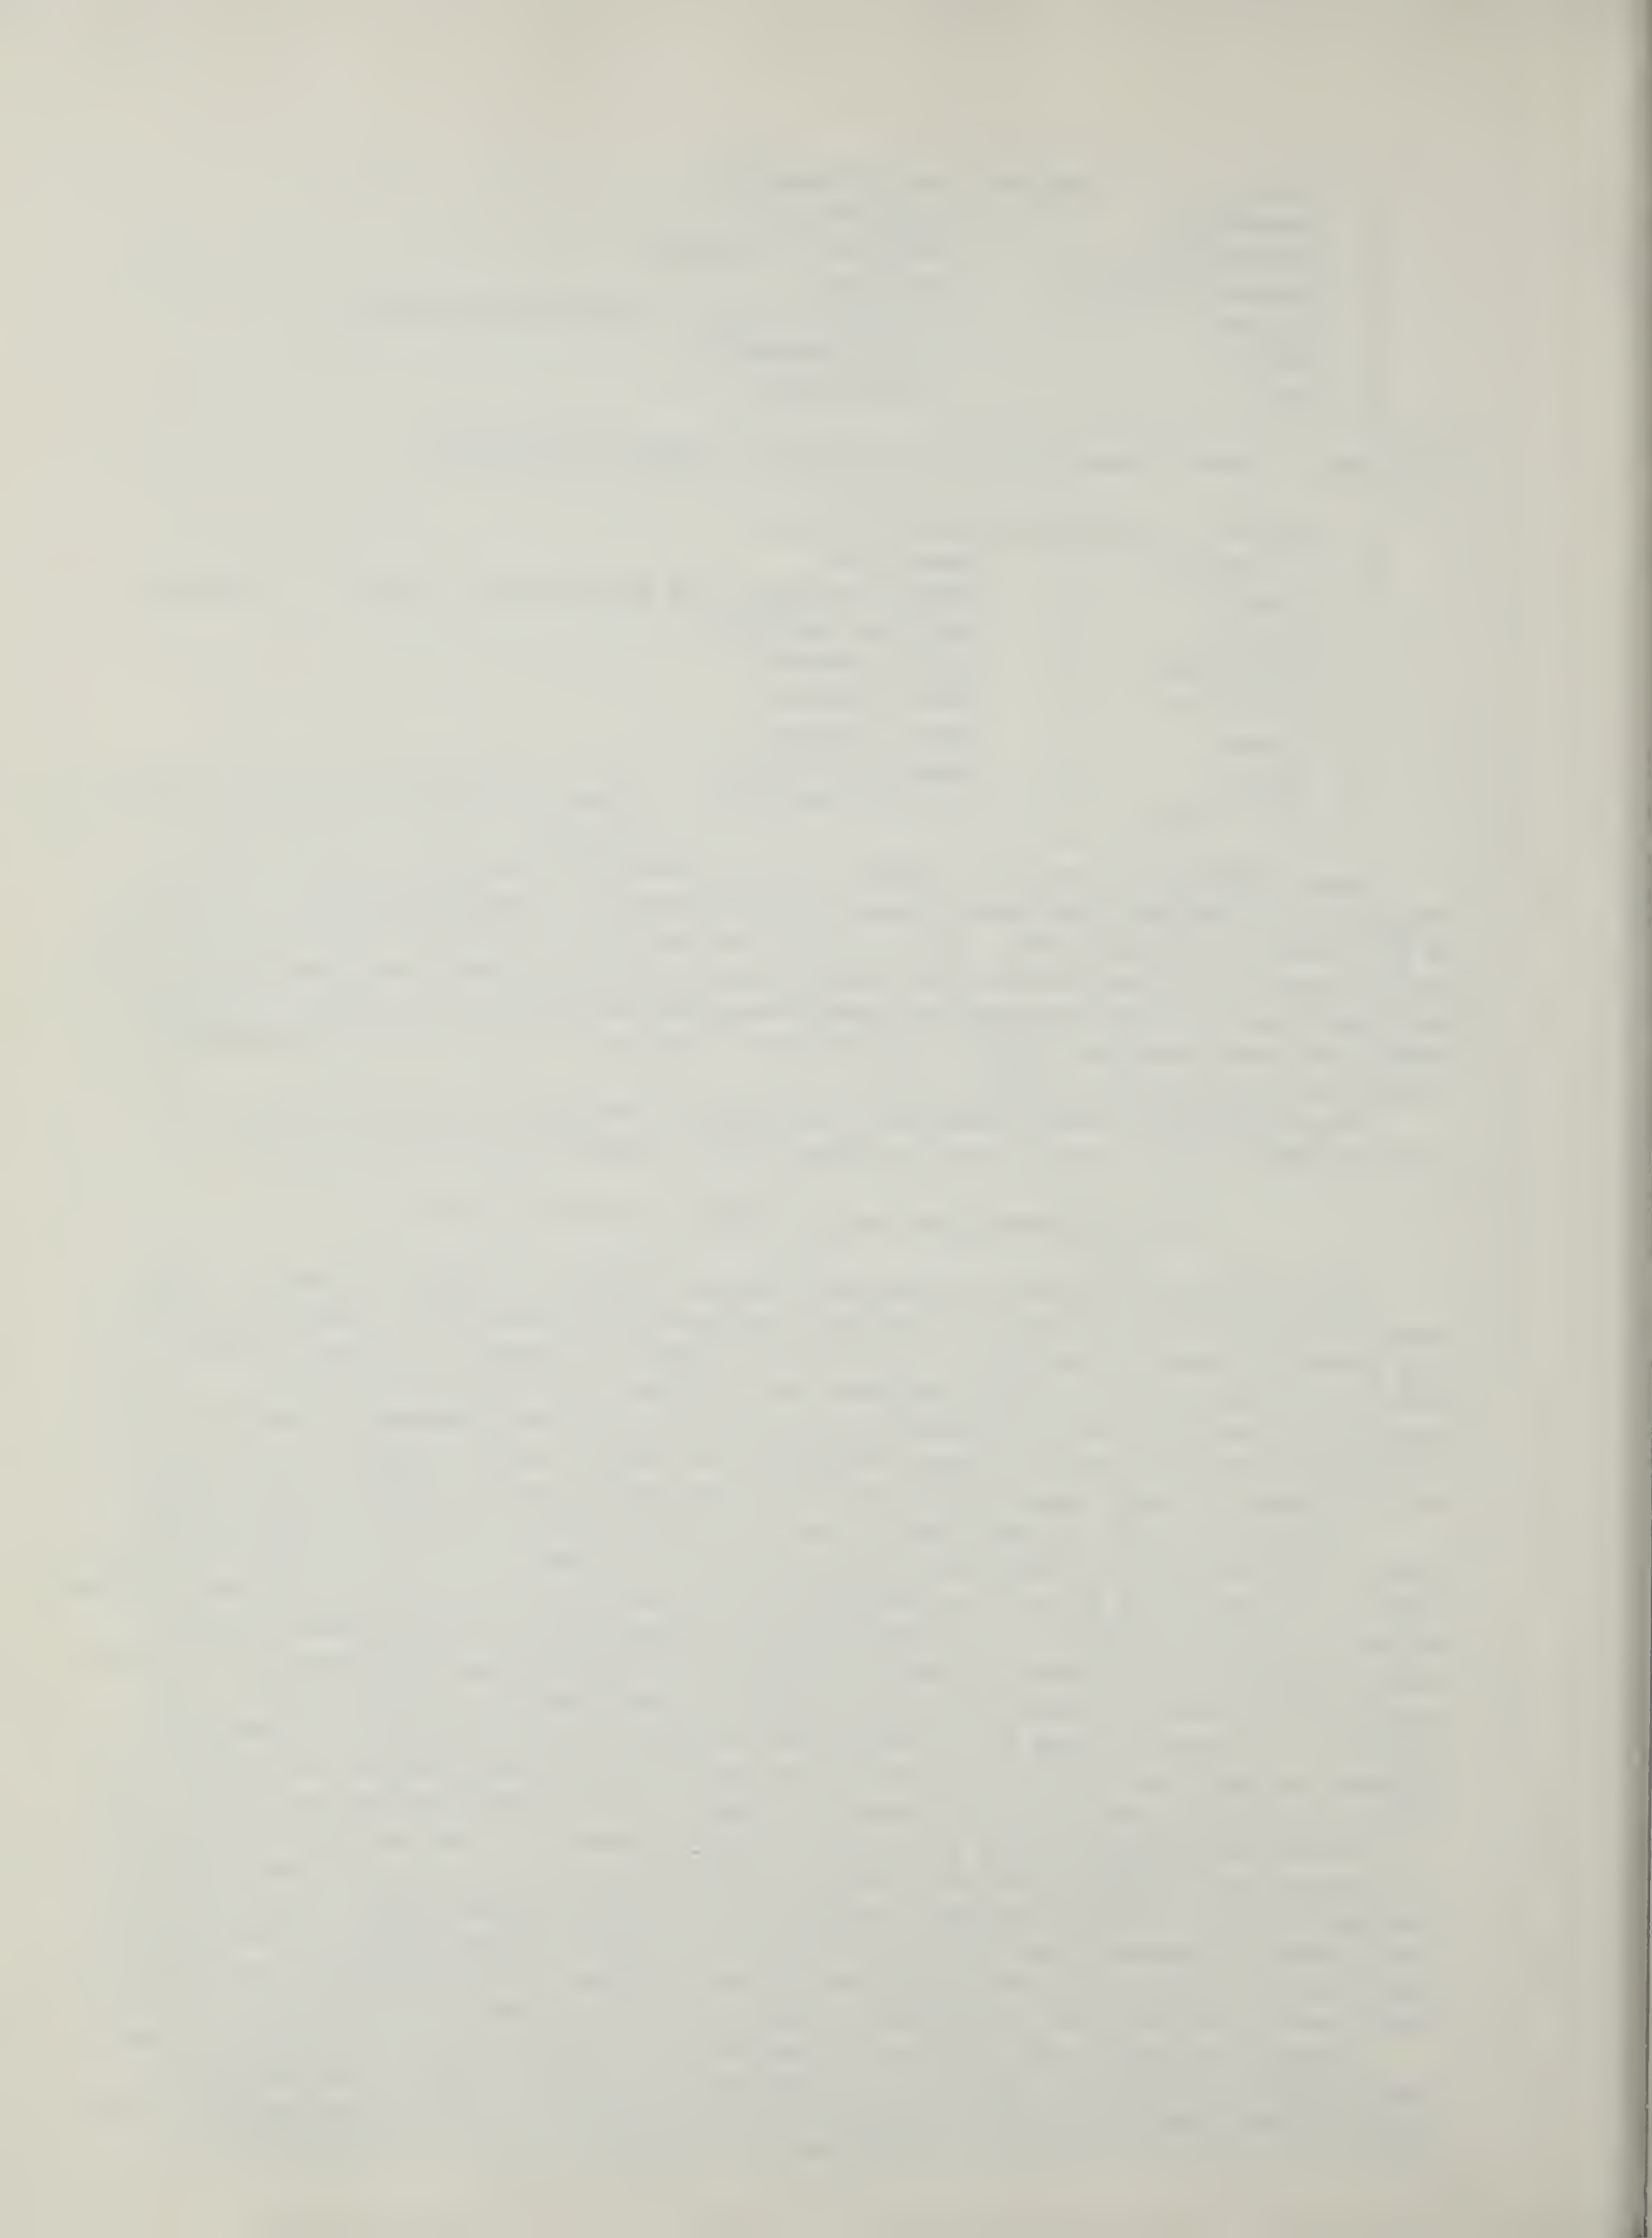

James Somerville, son of Samuel Somerville Sr.

James Somerville when 16 walked 40 miles from his father's home on Right Reedy to Marietta Ohio in 1825 to see the Frenchman LaFayette when he was on his goodwill tour of the U.S. He heard him make a speech and shook hands with him. In later life he often related the incident in every particular. He attended the early schools at Pisgah near his home and his education was far above the average of his day. He was constable in 1835 in Wood County and his name may be found in many legal documents at Parkersburg and at Ripley Court House.

On Oct 13, 1831 he received a deed for 100 acres of land on Right Reedy Creek 7 miles from the Little Kanawha River in Jackson Co., W.Va., consideration $150. This was the first deed recorded in Jackson Co., Va., now W.Va and is recorded in Book 1, page 1. In 1835 he sold this farm to his brother-in-law, Jacob Bumgarner. He went to the vicinity of Parkersburg, W.Va. and for a time operated the ferry across the Ohio between Parkersburg and Belpre Ohio. In 1838 as recorded in Wood Co Court House he bought land from his father-in-law Andrew Vanlear, on Neal's Run and later sold it to Richard Mahew for $1400. Later his father sold him 100 acres on Sandy Creek below Brushy Fork for $1.00.

James Somerville lived on Sandy for many years. Later he sold this place and purchased a small farm on Lockhart's Fork near by. He and his wife Catherine spent their last years here cared for by their daughter Mrs. Mary Wooddell and husband. James often visited among his relatives and friends. He made a visit to the West to visit relatives in the 1880's, soon after his son Andrew went west. He also had 3 brothers, Sim, Dave, and Hiram who lived in the West.

James Somerville and Catherine Vanlear were married Sept 2, 1830 by Rev. Reece Wolfe in Wood Co. then Va. During the Civil War James a Confederate sympathizer lived on Sandy. His brother John and one of the Stephen McPhersons boys on their way home from the Wiseberg Postoffice one day jokingly told James that a troop of Union soldiers were advancing up Sandy Creek, helping themselves to livestock belonging to Southern sympathizers. Mr. S. at this time owned a very fine team of horses. He directed his son Robert, a young man at home to move the horses to a high point above the road hidden by brush and a cliff of rocks. There was a high rail fence parallel to the road upon which James sat to wait for the Yankees. Meanwhile Robert was busy. He tied the horses to a tree and conceived an idea to circumvent the would-be horse thieves. He secured a large round stone which he knew would roll well and placed it on the rock ledge intending to let loose at the proper time on to the expected soldiers, not knowing his father was on the fence below. Before the approach of the would-be rustlers (they never came), Robert accidentally lost his grip and the huge stone rolled down the hill striking and destroying the fence near where his father sat on it. Fence rails flew in every direction. James, who landed in the middle of the road amid the dust and wreckage, gathered himself up and seeing his son Robert on the cliff above told him to come on down and that he did not care if the Yankees took him as well as the horses.
